Rebecca Kinsinger has always dreamed of being a teacher. But when shes given the opportunity shes been waiting for at Charm Amish School, shes dismayed to discover that teaching is hard work-work shes afraid shes not very good at. That is, until Lilly Yoder joins the class. A thirteen-year old whos just lost her parents, Lilly is in need of someone like Rebecca. For the first time since starting her new job, Rebecca feels a sense of purpose. But when she meets Lillys uncle, Jacob, his good looks and sweet, easy-going temperament are hard to ignore. How can she even entertain romantic thoughts of Jacob when his niece is her student? Suddenly becoming Lillys sole caregiver, Jacob Yoder never thought hed be a single parent-or a farmer. Having been living in Florida as a carpenter, Jacob feels more at home wielding a hammer than a backhoe. The only bright spot in his life is Rebecca Kinsinger. As Lily and Rebecca develop a bond, Jacobs fondness for the pretty teacher grows, too. But when a fateful accident brings them together, Rebecca and Jacob must choose between duty and desire. Will they follow the path before them? Or set out to find true happiness and true love?
