

A Formula For Miracles: Understanding The Power of God

Did the miracles of God stop centuries ago? I do not believe that is the case. I am convinced that he is still positively and powerfully intervening in the lives of those that love him. Many people believe that God is cloaked in mystery far, far away. But the bible says that God is near to those who love him. And, I believe that the bible, his Holy Spirit, and the works of his creation all provide ample confirmation that it is his desire that we truly know him. I believe that God is still miraculously intervening in the lives of his creation. But my beliefs are substantially deeper than that. I believe that Gods interventions come with a level of predictability. I do not believe in random acts of thunderstorms, nor random acts of showers of blessings.
