

Ministers For The Inheritance Of Black People In America: Lamentations 5: 2-10

We are writing this book to the 39 million African American people in America. This book is a review of history from the 1800s, when twenty African American campaigned for 40 Acres and a Mule. We the Ministers for the Inheritance of Black people in America are using our First Amendment Right to express what we believe in a book. We believe this will inspire many African Americans to believe in themselves and in America.
