

She was a Bigamist: Was she a woman without Honor? Or a Woman who loved too much?

Only four months after her marriage to wealthy, handsome Thaxton Eldridge III, Kytra Bradshaw falls irresistibly in love with another man--a brooding half-breed named Ransom, a madman condemned by his tribe to dwell the island cliffs where he paints exuberant art on kites. Fall in love with this incredible story that takes you from Marthas Vineyard into the lifestyle of the wealthiest Americans of The Gilded Age--contemporaries of the Astors and the Vanderbilts--whose mansions still stand today in Newport, Rhode Island, and are unparalleled in splendor. Can a woman really love two men at the same time? See for yourself how it happened to this daring woman and why she took an extraordinary risk to love two men. When you meet wealthy aristocratic Thaxton and tormented Ransom, ask yourself--Could you choose between them? Experience an adventure of forbidden love and sensuality that sizzles with extra Zs! Discover the consequences of one womans enormous capacity for love and its very real dangers.
